

Murder Charge Not Sustained

Accusation of Wife Against Her Husband Proves to Be Groundless.

CHICAGO, April 30.—Andrew Houston, who had been held by the police since Wednesday pending an investigation of a murder, said by his wife to have been committed in Ohio, has been released. The police had obtained no verification of the charge from the Ohio authorities.

Houston, after having his wife arrested on a charge of bigamy, was himself charged by her with having committed a murder near Leggett, O., many years ago. She said she learned of this through her husband's habit of talking in his sleep.

When Houston was arrested the police sent telegrams to Ohio asking for an investigation of the charges. No answer was received, and the accused man was released.

Slew His Wife, Then Cut His Throat

Horrible Double Tragedy in Which a Texas Couple Were the Victims.

HUNTSVILLE, Ala., April 30.—As the mother was in the act of laying her baby in bed, Fleming, a freeman of Dallas Mills shot his wife, followed her as she ran into the yard, cut her throat, killing her, and then inflicted fatal wounds upon himself. Neighbors bearing the shots rushed to the place, Fleming met them at the gate with his throat horribly bruised and told what he had done. Going back to the body of his wife he again cut his throat and fell dead beside her. A son of the couple was in the room when the trouble started, but fled at the first shot and saw no more of the tragedy.

Missing Man Heard From

Charles Demolli, Labor Leader, Who Disappeared From Pueblo, Turns
Up in Kansas.

PUEBLO, April 30.—Because Charles Demolli failed to appear today as complaining witness against Oreste Pagini, charged with being the ring leader of a gang which assaulted the Italian labor leader several weeks ago, the case was dismissed by Justice McKallip. Pagini, however, will be held on a complaint sworn to by William Gearhard, charging him with assaulting Demolli with intent to kill. Demolli is in the coal fields of Kansas and is in communication with friends here.

Lost His Foot in a Turntable

Court Awards Big Sum to Lad Who Was Injured at a Roundhouse.

CHICAGO, April 30.—For the loss of his right foot while he was helping a train crew at a turn table, William Chastres, 11 years old, has been awarded $14,000 damages in Judge Honore's court. In August, 1903, while at play near the turn table of the Belt railway, the boy was called by an engine crew to help turn the table.

Helen Gould Visits the Fair

Participates in the Ceremonies at St.
Louis and Is Welcomed by Lady Managers.

ST. LOUIS, April 30.—Miss Helen Gould arrived today to take part in the opening ceremonies of the World's fair. She came with E. H. Harriman and a party of ladies in Mr. Harriman's private car. Miss Gould was met at the Union station by Mrs. Daniel Manning and a delegation of other members of the board of lady managers. The reception was entirely informal.

A Tricky Parrot.

A rather dignified young woman entered a florist's shop on Madison avenue. A shrill voice, resembling that of an old woman, greeted her with: "Shut the door! Don't you know it's cold?"

Much embarrassed, she looked about for the speaker, saying: "Excuse me, but the wind blew so hard I could hardly close the door."

Then, to her great astonishment, she found she had been conversing with a parrot. Amused at the bird for deceiving her, she turned her back to the cage and was intent upon examining some flowers. Suddenly the same voice, or what seemed to be, said to her:

"What can I do for you, Miss?"

"If you hold your tongue I shall be gratified above all things," replied the young woman, turning around as she spoke, and discovering the florist's wife—New York Press.

HALIFAX, N. S., April 30.—A message received here stated that the schooner Grano is bound from West India for Halifax with molasses, is wrecked, and is being towed and all on board lost.

FRANK MOORE and six more were found guilty by Diehl of running a lot of vile slot machines. They forfeited bail. And a man from Pueblo, by name Joseph Means, Though he had been drunk, did penitence. And said he'd not fail. To cut out the booze in future, and so The court lectured him and then let him go. James Buckley, a vag, got two months in jail. In spite of the promise he'd hit the through trail If he were turned loose.

LIONS KILL DEER.

America's Mountain Cat Slays More
Game Than Bullets of the Hunters.

More deer are killed every year in California by the mountain lions than by the bullets of the hunters, says a Los Angeles dispatch to the New York Herald.

Next to the jaguar, the mountain lion is the largest cat in the two Americas, and he is the champion deer slayer of the world. Within thirty or forty miles of Los Angeles he catches the deer, footed, graceful creatures, and waxes fat on the sweet flesh. He knows no deer season other than all the time.

Wherever there is good deer country in this or any other Southwestern State there is the best place to look for lions, and that is one of the reasons why the large herds of deer are restless, seldom staying long in one locality. There is nothing they fear more than the sight or smell of a mountain lion. Not even the sudden appearance of a hunter will so quickly drive them from a range of hills.

The lion's method of hunting the deer is not unlike that of the big cats of Africa and India in the pursuit of the antelope and deer of those countries. Having found a spring or pool where the desired game comes to water at nightfall, the lion selects an overhanging limb or ledge of rock, when one leap will carry him to the back or throat of his prey, and thereon he lays himself in perfect stillness. In the gathering dusk the imperfect eye of the deer sees little chance against the hidden foe, and the wind, usually his faithful ally, can help him to all, and the lion is far too quick a campaigner not to lie in wait from the spring.

The deer comes. One leap from the limb or ledge, and the sharp teeth and powerful paws soon break the tender neck.

The stories that a California lion can carry away a deer have abundant proof. It was once the fortune of a hunter to follow the plain, broad trail of the heavy pads for half a mile and then come suddenly on the place where the killer stopped to rest. There in plain outline was the imprint of the deer's body; but for that whole distance the lion had carried it well up and clear of the ground.

"Spell or Pay"

A brand new type of spelling bee is the latest thing at the clubs, and it is a favorite game when a party of men are sitting around a big table in the cafe, because the losers are "stuck" for drinks or whatever form of refreshment is most in demand. One person takes any letter, say "d," the person next to him thinks of some word commencing with "d" and announces aloud the second letter of that word—"w"—"r." The third person takes it up there and thinks of another word beginning with "dr." He might say "e." The next might say "a."

The next person is in a hole, for unless he gives as the next letter one which will make a part of a word he is "stuck," and if the letter he gives is the last letter of any word he is also "stuck." He might say "n," but if he did the next man would challenge him to announce the word he had in mind. If he said "in," the next man would claim a word spelled.

Another instance: No. 1 takes "a," 2 takes "e," 3 takes "o," 4 takes "u," 5 takes "g," 6 takes "h" and 7 is forced to take "n" and loses. If No. 7 could have thought of any word except the drought he might have "stuck" some one beyond him. The new game is creating quite a furore, and is a favorite after dinner pastime and causes much hard thinking and fun, but it shows up the poor spellers terribly.—Philadelphia Press.

BOMBAY, April 30.—Lord Curzon of Kedleston, viceroy of India, sailed for home today on board the steamer Arabia. He was given a great send-off. The city was gaily decorated and large crowds gathered to bid him farewell. He appeared to be in excellent health.

J. Burke and H. Horn left five in the till. Because they had drank somewhat more than their fill. Of this juice. Joe Mansfield, a drunkard, with arm lame and sore. Decided he'd been paralyzed some time before. But thought if the court would but give a permit. For him to go round holding out the big mitt. But he would be well. But in view of the facts the court did not feel. That he could place credence in Joe Mansfield's spiel. And sent him to jail. That was 'bout all, save a dealer in hope. Was found guilty of pulling his blinds on the cops.

"I wrote to Doctor Pierce, who sent me a very kind letter and advised me."

Thousands of weak and sick women can trace the beginning of a new life of perfect health to that letter written to Dr. Pierce.

Sick and ailing women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures weak and aching backs, headaches, nervousness and other womanly ailments by curing the womanly diseases which cause them.

In the spring of 1900 I became very ill. I wrote Mrs. Alfreda Schott of Lake Washington, Leavenworth, Mo., "My back was very weak and ached so that I could do no work at all, as I was obliged to take to my bed. I felt a constant desire to urinate and the pains in my abdomen were almost unbearable. I wrote to Dr. Pierce, who sent me a very kind letter, and advised me to take his 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I took six bottles of each and am a well woman now. I cannot say enough in favor of Dr. Pierce's medicines."

GOOD BLOOD THE BEST LEGACY

Riches take wings and fly away—are squandered and lost in extravagance and speculation, and more often prove a curse than a blessing. A foolish desire to accumulate wealth for the benefit of posterity, has led to the physical undoing of thousands. Health is lost in the mad pursuit of riches, diseases are contracted, the vitalizing, nutritious properties of the blood are almost exhausted by demands of the nervous system, and it is little wonder that children born of such parents are sickly, weak, anæmic and illy developed. Better to be born poor and healthy than rich and sickly.

Good blood is the best legacy, for that means strong, vigorous bodies, well nourished systems and nerves, muscles and all the machinery of the body in perfect condition. When handicapped by some inherited disease, not only is life's struggle made harder, but existence becomes a lingering misery, and even if blessed with riches, sickness is a hindrance to their enjoyment. Through the blood, diseases are carried from one generation to another. Parents transmit them to their children, and so it goes on for years unless the taint is removed from the blood. Cancerous Ulcers, Rheumatism, Blood Poison, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Skin Eruptions of various kinds, are all evidences of a depraved and poisoned blood. "Like begets like" is true of the vegetable world, and is true also of the animal kingdom. We know that certain seeds produce certain plants, and sickly parents or those in whose blood is a taint of some old family ailment or blood poison; diseases are apt to develop in their children, either in infancy or later on in life. If you can't leave a legacy of riches, at least start them out in life with pure and unpolluted blood; this they can with reason expect, for it is their rightful inheritance.

Often some old chronic illness that might have been uprooted and driven out of the blood is neglected, and posterity is made to suffer the consequences of this neglect. If you have any disease for which bad blood is responsible, to neglect it is almost a crime—you are unjust to yourself and false to your offspring to do so. Purify your blood; get rid of the taint and leave to others good blood which, after all, is the best legacy. No remedy ever discovered is so reliable in diseases of the blood as S. S. S. Experience and a thorough test have proven its efficacy. It has been in use for nearly fifty years and has been growing in popularity all the time, and "S. S. S. for the Blood" is known throughout the country as the standard remedy in all chronic, deep-seated blood troubles. S. S. S. is the only blood medicine guaranteed entirely vegetable and which does not contain a single mineral ingredient. Because your disease may be inherited from a long line of ancestors is no reason it cannot be cured. Get your blood in good condition, and through it new energy and strength are imparted to all parts of the system, the circulation is quickened, and the old taint, humor or poison causing the disease is driven out through the natural channels. Keep your own blood uncontaminated if you hope to leave a welcome legacy to those who come after. If you have any chronic trouble or stubborn skin disease due to bad condition of the blood, write us about it and our physicians will cheerfully advise you without charge.
